

Year Four Key Knowledge for RE
What does it mean to be a Hindu in Britain today?	Why do people think life is a journey and what experiences mark this?	Why is Jesus inspiring to some people?	What can we learn about religion about deciding what is wrong/right?
In Hinduism, people believe in four main aims of life.	Religious believers often have ceremonies to celebrate different milestones in their life.	During Holy Week, Christians remember the events that led up to Jesus' death.	The Ten Commandments are important rules from God that tell Christians and Jewish believers how to live.
The Trimurti (Brahma, Vishnu, Shiva) are three of the most significant forms of Brahman.	Christian Baptism is a ceremony that symbolises a commitment to living a life as a Christian.	In the Bible, Good Friday is the day on which Jesus was crucified.	Christians believe Jesus' words and actions show them how to live.
Hindu's believe god is everywhere and in everyone.	A Bar or Bat Mitzvah is a coming of age ceremony for Jewish boys and girls when they reach 'adulthood'.	Easter Sunday is the celebration of Jesus' Resurrection.	The Beatitudes sum up Jesus' teaching about what it means to live in God's kingdom.
Moksha is the ultimate goal within Hinduism.	Marriage is a legal commitment ceremony and religious and non-religious people get married	Christians believe Jesus was the Messiah that he had died for everyone's sins.	Humanists do not look for God or sacred texts for rules on how to live.
Puja is Hindu worship.	The Sacred Thread ceremony is a ceremony for boys in some Hindu communities to confirm they are of an age to take on religious responsibility.	There are four gospels which are biblical narratives covering the life and death of Jesus Christ.	For many Humanists, their conscience is very important in helping them decide what is right.
